Fwooosh...

We've traveled quite a long way now. I guess it's time to take a break...

I left the city after purchasing the necessary medicine. Although my workshop wasn't too far away, it would be faster if we crossed the mountain. This way, we shouldn't have to worry about encountering monsters along the way.

I heard that elves have always lived in the deep forest. The mountain road was nothing out of the ordinary, but it was a sight to see her standing in nature. It may have just been my imagination, but her expression seemed to be more relaxed than when she was in the city.
